PLEASE SUPPORT THE CARIBBEAN HURRICANE RELIEF EFFORT

A committee has been formed to respond to the desperate needs of the people of the Caribbean islands devastated by the terrible hurricanes this past summer and fall. THEY NEED YOUR HELP as they struggle to rebuild their homes, schools, churches, roads, etc.

Monetary donations can be made to: “The Caribbean Hurricane Relief Fund”, a special account set up by the West Indian Foundation through Webster Bank, and can be dropped off at any Webster Bank branch or mailed to: Webster Bank, 275 Cottage Grove Road, Bloomfield, CT 06002. All donations are fully tax-deductible.

Donations of canned goods are welcome as well as: blankets, candles, battery operated tools, flashlights, batteries of all sizes, hammers, screwdrivers, work gloves & boots, disposable diapers and baby blankets, and soups, cereals, sugar, rice, and cooking oil.

There are barrels waiting to receive your donations at the following drop-off sites:

The West Indian Social Club of Hartford, Inc., 3340 Main St., Hartford
Barbados American Society of Hartford, 126 Homestead Avenue, Hartford
Golden Krust Caribbean Bakery, 1170 Albany Avenue, Hartford
Jamaica Progressive League, 1120 Albany Avenue, Hartford
ACA Food Store, 3155 Main Street, Hartford
Pepper Pot Restaurant, 715 Park Avenue, Bloomfield
Windsor Automotive, 20 Windsor Street, Hartford

PLEASE ALSO SUPPORT THE VARIOUS FUND RAISERS BEING SCHEDULED BY THE COMMITTEE, THE FIRST ONE BEING A:

GOSPEL BRUNCH

To be held this coming Sunday, October 10, 2004, at the West Indian American Center, 3340 Main Street, Hartford.

Time: 1:30 to 5:00PM.

Featuring fine Gospel Music, a fashion show and a buffet dinner.
